I hope to get support from the GCTF with regards to the new global project initiated by the Netherlands and UNOCT on Advanced Passenger Information and Passenger Name Records (API/PNR), to significantly improve aviation security and stop the flow of FTFs. I am grateful to the Dutch colleagues for their confidence in UN system.

Excellencies,

I would also like to mention excellent cooperation of my Office with GCTF-inspired institution The Global Community Engagement and Resilience Fund, Hedaya, the International Institute for Justice and the Rule of Law.

We at the United Nations, look forward to continuing to work together with GCTF to strengthen further
