Almost 50 two-year projects totalling almost ten million dollars have been approved for UNDEF's 13th Round of funding. In this Round, UNDEF received 2,307 project proposals from organizations in 141 countries, the vast majority local civil society organizations in Africa, Arab States, Asia, Eastern Europe, Latin America and the Caribbean, adding further to the considerable growth the Fund has experienced since its creation in 2005 and bring the total number of projects supported by the Fund to more than 800.

Of the project proposals, 33 per cent are in the Arab States, 22 per cent in Africa, 19 per cent in Asia, 11 per cent in Europe, and 13 per cent in Latin America. Broken down by key activity, 23 per cent of project proposals are in rule of law and human rights; 22 per cent in gender equality; 18 per cent in youth engagement; 15 per cent in strengthening interaction with government; 9 per cent in electoral processes; 9 per cent in community activism; 3 per cent in media and 1 per cent in tools for knowledge. Governments on the Board comprise those countries who have made the largest $ce^{\oplus} \pm \tilde{s}^{\circ} \tilde{F}_{1} = \tilde{F} \tilde{s}^{\circ} \tilde{F} \tilde{s}^{\circ} \tilde{F}_{1} = \tilde{F} \tilde{s}^{\circ} \tilde{F} \tilde{s}^{\circ} \tilde{F} \tilde{s}^{\circ} \tilde{F}_{1} = \tilde{F} \tilde{s}^{\circ} \tilde{s}^{\circ} \tilde{s}^{\circ} \tilde{F} \tilde{s}^{\circ} \tilde{F} \tilde{s}^{\circ} \tilde{s}^$

The project aims to integrate youth in the country's social fabric and democratic transition by equipping them to participate in their regions' economic and political life, through raining in soft skills, project management, participative democracy, entrepreneurship. The project is co-managed through a youth-led steering committee, allowing them to exercise leadership and launch public initiatives where they can put into practice the foundations of democracy.
