

11 APRIL2023

Multi -

Carolyn Rodrigues Birkett is Permanent Representative of Guyana to the United Nations since October 2020. She has extensive experience in policies, programs and institutional development for health, nutrition, water and sanitation, including nutrition education and food security and distribution. She has served Government in several positions, including as Coordinator of the Social Improvement Programme, Minister of Foreign Affairs, Foreign Trade and International Co-operation (2017-2019), Minister of Health and