

Distr. RESTRICTED
CRS/2013/DP.7

ORIGINAL: SPANISH

THIRD INTERNATIONAL DECADE FOR THE ERADICATION OF COLONIALISM

~~Guinean regional seminar on the implementation of the Third International Decade~~

¿QUITO - ECUADOR?

Señor Presidente,

Me complace enormemente poder participar nuevamente en el Seminario Regional organizado por el Comité Especial en su trabajo constante para poner fin a los restantes casos del colonialismo en el mundo que, mayoritariamente, son situaciones insulares a lo largo del Océano Atlántico y del Caribe. Uno de estos casos es el de las islas Malvinas, lugar donde se vive casi la mitad de mi por último, circunstancia. Esta omisión podría ser resultado de la ingenuidad de estar mal informado, o simplemente de aferrarse fanáticamente de la ideología dilatoria de la política inglesa. Pero lo cierto es que –aparentemente- no les importa en absoluto que su actitud, como yojeros de la colectividad multinacional que hoy lleva a cabo la ocupación “de facto”, real, efectiva y continua del archipiélago malvinero, es inescrupulosa, carente de todo vestigio de principios y demostrando un desprecio y total desdén por el derecho internacional.

Su lenguaje es invariable, usan términos agresivos en cada oportunidad en que les presenta en un espectáculo perfectamente sincronizado de la ufetima inocente, siempre la culpa está en el otro. Sus es subrayar que el observador británico, el profesor emérito en Política global de la Universidad de inmediata cancelación de sus acreditaciones a causa de sus declaraciones previas a la farsa, en el partido de que un resultado abrumador por el sí o el no que arroja las urnas, aún así las

127

UNOFFICIAL TRANSLATION.

Mr. Chairman,

It was a great pleasure to be able to participate once more in a Regional Seminar organized by the Special Committee in its constant work to bring to an end the remaining cases of colonization surrounding maritime areas, putting an end to the anglo-argentine controversy of the sovereignty over the said archipelagos and the surrounding maritime areas. This omission may arise simply out of ingenuity, or being misinformed, or merely fanatically clinging to the dilatory ideology of British politics on this issue. But what is certain is that – apparently – it doesn't worry them a single instant that their attitude, as the spokesmen of the multinational population that today statements in the impenetrable colonial regime of Puerto Argentino. Statements of dire consequences for the British Professor Emeritus, who lost his attentive observer status for which he had been called and was requested to leave the Islands. Too much freedom of expression for the British factor.

have been, to have heard a position that coincides with the terms of all UN resolutions on this subject, or, a adopting a tendency that demonstrates the British government as being more creative and flexible on this issue and having a higher degree of respect for international law

Ladies and Gentlemen, broadly speaking any civilized diplomatic dialogue goes from simple advisory consultations through to formal agreements and should take into account all the contextual realities and, obviously, be in accordance lawful circumstances. Through faithful dialogue innovating ideas flow, together with establishing purposes and achievable goals that principals faster in this matter at the moment

There isn't the slightest possibility that these British citizens opt for continuing to live under a British law in occupied territories. Under no circumstances. This comment and