STATEMENT BY

Greetings Madame Chair to all the members of your Committee

You have said, through this Resolution, that a Non Self Governing Territory can be said to have reached a full measure of Self Government by:

3. Integration with an Independent State;

In the context of this Resolution, the adoption by a NSGT of a constitution which would first have to be approved by the administering power, would not be endorsed as a movement to reach self-government.

We would welcome the presence of the IIN as an objective and credible voice regarding the decolonization process which extends not just to land, but to mind and body. We would also welcome your financial and other resources which can come to support Aboriginal
