

the Dutch East India Company, which was established in 1602, was a significant factor in the Dutch colonial expansion. The company's activities were primarily focused on the East Indies, where it established a network of trading posts and colonies. The Dutch East India Company's influence was particularly strong in the region of Southeast Asia, where it controlled the spice trade and established a dominant presence in the region. The company's activities were also a major factor in the Dutch colonial expansion in the Americas, where it established a network of trading posts and colonies. The Dutch East India Company's influence was particularly strong in the region of the Caribbean, where it controlled the sugar trade and established a dominant presence in the region.

Thank you for giving me the floor Chair,

Let me start by thanking the Secretary-General for his reports of the Administration of Justice 73/217, the report of the Ombudsman 73/167, report of the Internal Justice Council 73/218. In addition, we have also assessed the report of the ethics Office 73/89, practice of the SG in disciplinary matters 73/71 and the ~~report of the whistle blower policies and practices in United Nations system organizations~~

JIU/REP/2018/4.

We align ourselves with the statement given by European Union on behalf of the EU and its Member States.
