Also, the Countering Money-Laundering Act was amended in 2019, in accordance with international standards to bolster law enforcement efforts in cutting off funds and violation of Security Council resolution 2231 should be deemed as a terrorist approach in disguise.

The effects of economic terrorism need to be confronted and opposed by all responsible members of the international community based on the political commitment in adopting policies and measures to eliminate such illegal and unfair acts and to create an enabling environment for all in the spirit of global partnership and solidarity.

Thank you, Mr. Chairman.
