

assisting in implementation of the GCTS across all four of its pillars. In this regard, and in line with the objectives of the joint CTED-UNOCT report submitted pursuant to other Member States to share the burden of helping the UN implement the GCTS, both by helping it improve its own work and its efforts to assist Member States.

We should also continue to partner with local communities and key civil society organizations. We also look forward to the implementation plan from UNOCT regarding the creation of its civil society u M q v f