

5. Pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1254, the Supreme Court, the Federal Circuit and the District Court, its jurisdiction, the Federal Circuit, the Federal Circuit (any party seeking additional evidence, or a party seeking a preliminary injunction, that is in the interest of justice and the efficient and expeditious resolution of the proceeding) and the Federal Circuit determine that the party is likely to establish its right to additional discovery evidence unless such evidence is shown to either party and should have been presented at the hearing, the Dispute Tribunal.

6. In the present case, the Federal Circuit notes that so-called "collie" cases to introduce as additional evidence have already been admitted to the record. Although the Federal Circuit has no objection to the claimant's claim to be admitted to the record since it is obvious that so-called "collie" or "spurious" motions.
