

Introduction

1. The Applicant is a Security Officer in the Department Stafety and Security (DSS) of the United Nation Office at Nairobi(UNON). In his Application dated 29 July 2013, he is contesting alecision, which he avers he became aware of on 25 January

7.30 am-2.00 pm without an interruption for lunch

5. In mid-2012, an error was discovered the UNON Administration the effect that Security Offices in UNON/DSS who work 1-22 our shifts were being paid OT and CTO for their regular hours of work such the they were mistakenly eceiving OT/CTO in accordance with the same policy scheme related to General Service Staff at UNON who receive OT/CTO according to the 7h doin day General Service staff work.

6. Between 10 and 29 August 20112ere was an exchange of emails between staff members of the UNON Budgetection and UNON/DSS concerning the calculation of overtimetor UNON/DSS staff members.

12. UNON Administration abused its authority when it interpreted UNON/IC/2002/3's definition of DSS officers' "regular work hours" as being their "regular work week" contrary to the definition of a regular working week that applies to all locally recruited Untied Nations staff in Kenyawhich includes UNONDSS officers.

13. UNON/IC/2002/3 states that the hours to be worked in a regular workweek are 37 hours in total and further that the hours to be used for the selary setting for locally recruited Unet d Nations staff in Kenya.

Respondent's submissions

17. The Respondent's case is summarized below:

18. The policy and conditions on OT a OT or governedby staff rule 3.11 and UNON/IC/2002/3.

19. According to staff regulation 1.3(b), the Secret@ry

calculate OT and CTO fostaff working 12

30. In the January and February 2013 payrplioperly accrued overtime in accordance with UNON/IC/2002/3 was dudgid based on the submission of claims by individual Security Officers.

31. The Applicant has failed to show how he was entitled to greater payment for overtime in accordance with the rules than he was actually paid for the months of December 2012 and Jaary 2013.

32. In administering staff, the Organization is obliged by law to observe the principle of equality. This has been confirmed by the former Administrative and as well as the United Nations Appeals Tribunal (UNAT) and the UND Talmari 2011-UNAT-177 and Neco81 03Tm [(/F1 1-2D 0 ET Q q BT /F1 12 Tf 000 rg 0.9981 001 10 to 12-hour shifts with a 60 minute lunch break therefore regular working hours are not applicable to them.

40. Paragraph 3 of the IC stipulates how the CTO for staff memiliberthae General Service and Professional catgegenral be calculated. There is no express provision in this paragraph with respect to the calculation of overtime for Security Officers and Drivers.

41. The uncontested evidence before the Tribunal is that the Applicant was earningOT and CTO according to 7.45 hour day scheme applicable to General Service staff at UNON rather than the Ho2ur shift scheme set out by the paragraph 2 of UNON/IC/2002/3.

42. Having carefully reviewed the entire documentary record in this case, the Tribunal finds and holds that the UNON Administration had, prior to m20012 when the error was discovered, been miscalculating the amount of OT and 00 T 00 Security Officers and Drivers at UNON. The Applicant, as a result had received payments in excess of what was due to. The UNON Administration has decided not to recover these overpayments. As held *dintruche*¹, the Administration has a right and even an obligation to put an end to illegal situations as soon as it becomes aware of them, while preserving any rights acquired by staff members in good faith.

Were staff-management consultations necessary to resolve the dispute?

43. Part of the Applicant's case is that the UNON Administration violated staff rule 8.1 when it failed to convene staffanagement consultations to resolve the issuesarising from its interpretation of and application of UNON/IC/2002/3. Staff rule 8.1(f) and staff regulation 8.1 are reproduced below:
