co##it#ents of 2e#ber States to increase their own %oluntary contributions e%en if the 9 orld Health; sse#bly does not adopt the proposal for increased assessed contributions"

2. F cusi''g atte''ti '' 't $e ge''(er (ime''si ''s ! g# %a# $ea#t$ crises)

The Task Force # e # bers recalled the ?angkok &rinciples which call for the pro # otion of the syste # atic integration of health into disaster risk reduction policies and plans. They encouraged - . 9 o # en # C and - . # to ensure that health di # ensions are fully integrated into the new Global &rogra # # in Support of a Gender 'esponsi%e Sendai Fra # ework # ple # entation. The Task Force # e # bers agreed that access to se7ual and reproducti%e health ser%ices is i # portant and that se7ua65F76 2 (7ua65F76 8 9 (e) - 2 . 80711(r)3 . 21279

а

l"tr (ucti "

- The Global Health Crises Task Force was established by the Secretary-General for a one year period beginning on 1 July 2 1!" The purpose of the Task Force is to #onitor$ coordinate and support the follow-up and i # ple # entation of the reco # # endations of the High-le%el & anel on the Global 'esponse to Health Crises ()& anel*+$ issued in its report on)& rotecting hu # anity fro # future health crises* (; A3 A32>+" Through its work$ the Task Force seeks to catalyse action on the & anel, s reco # # endations$ enhance the preparedness of the . syste #$ # aintain the profile of global health issues$ and # ake substanti%e contributions to the strengthening of the global capability for responding to health e # ergencies"
- 2" The Task Force #eets on a Ouarterly basis and pro%ides Ouarterly reports to the Secretary-General on the progress of the &anel,s reco##endations" <uring its first #eeting$ the Task Force identified nine priority areas4

3" The &anel reco##ended that go%ern#ents should)FiGncorporate planning for health crisis responses into national disaster risk-reduction prepar affected co##unities" Funding needs to de%elop$ incorporate and roll out training of the co##unity engage#ent co#ponents re#ains to be discussed with key partners"

Supp rti"g regi "a# arra"geme"ts t preve"t a" (resp "(t $ea#t$ crises Tas1 F rce %servati "s a"(a(vice

GLOBAL HEALTH CRISES TASK FORCE Third Quarterly Report (January – March 2017)

GLOBAL HEALTH C

platfor# currently being de%eloped by the 9 H: Health 6#ergencies &rogra##e$ which will be launched in June 2 13"

Testi"g capacities a" (pr cesses! rg# %a# $ea#t$ crises resp "se t$r ug$ simu#ati "s Tas1 F rce %servati "s a"(a(vice

• The Task Force #e#bers e#phasised the critical i#portance of bringing together all stakeholders in country-le%el si#ulations\(^\) including as part of the /H ' 2 onitoring 6\(^\)aluation Fra#ework\(^\) /n\(^\)ol\(^\)ing the pri\(^\)ate sector\(^\) ci\(^\)il s

%

> " /n January 2 13\s a pande # ic si # ulation was held at the 9 orld 6cono # ic Foru # #eeting in <a\sin a pande # ic si # ulation\s which engaged > C6 : s fro # the pri\sate sector\s was co-chaired by <r" Ji # Ji #\s the 9 orld ?ank Group &resident and 2 r" 9 illia # H" Gates\s the co-chair of the ?ill and 2 elinda Gates Foundation" The si # ulation e7ercise e7a # ined the i # plications of an outbreak for four areas4 (i+ touris # and tra\sel(\sel(\text{ii+ infor } # ation and co # # unication(\sel(\text{iii+ in-country operations}) logistics and supply chain(\text{and (i\sim training})) education and workforce # anage # ent" The C6 : s acknowledged that de\seloping preparedness and response capacity re0uires global collaboration across different pri\sets at sector partners" These si # ulations will feed into a si # ulation for the G2 health # inisters in 2 ay 2 13" 'esults fro # these e7ercises will be considered by the G2 leaders in July 2 13"

Cata#ysi"g! cuse(researc$ a"(i"" vati " re#eva"t t g# %a# $ea#t$ crises Tas1 F rce %servati "s a"(a(vice

- The Task Force #e#bers co##ended 9 H: for its clarity in setting out the re%ised #ethodology for prioritising e#erging diseases" The Task Force #e#bers agreed that it was i#portant for the #ethodology to allow for the e7a#ination of a pathogen or disease that #ight need to be prioritised between annual e7ercises"
- The Task Force welco#ed the collaboration between C6&/ and 9 H: $ and the align#ent of C6&/,s acti%ities with the 9 H: list of priority diseases"
- The Task Force #e#bers noted that the broader de%elop#ent and support of translatable platfor# technologies for diagnostics$ %accines$ and therapeutics is i#portant to ha%e in place and ready to respond prior to future outbreaks"
- The Task Force #e#bers encouraged 9 H: to continue to ser%e in a role of con%ening organi5ation and pro#ote coordination$ but not create its own research capabilities. They endorsed the role of funding agencies and organi5ations with e7tensi%e e7perience in supporting and #anaging research activities to continue to fulfil this responsibility.

" ' /

>1" The fra#ework for 9 H:,s work in research and de%elop#ent is set out in its) 'R<? lueprint for; ction to &re%ent 6pide#ics4 &lan of; ction* () 'R<? lueprint+ issued in 2 ay 2 1! and was welco#ed by the 9 orld Health; sse#bly in the sa#e #onth¹¹ The 'R<? lueprint focuses on three clusters of acti%ities4 (i+ assessing epide#ic threat and defining priority pathogensC (ii+ de%eloping 'R< road#aps to accelerate e%aluation of diagnostics$ therapeutics and %accinesC and (iii+ outlining appropriate regulatory and ethical pathways"

; ssessing epide#ic threat and defining priority pathogens

>2" /n February 2 13$ 9 H: issued a re%ised #ethodology for prioritising se%ere

GLOBAL HEALTH CRISES TASK FORCE

should agree the ti#ing of the ne7t re%iew of the &/& Fra#ework$ which should be before the end of 2 $21*"^{1!}$

- @1" The &anel reco##ended that 9 H: #e#ber States increase their assessed contributions to the 9 H: budget by at least 1 per cent¹
- @2" The <raft &roposed &rogra##e ?udget for 2 1E-2 1H (6? 1@ A>!+ sub#itted by the 9 H: Secretariat to the 67ecuti%e ?oard in January 2 13 contained an increase of SP HH #illion" The proposed increase related #ainly to increases in the budgets for the 9 H: Health 6#ergencies &rogra##e (-SP!H"1 #illion+ and for co#bating anti#icrobial resistance (-SP 2>"> #illion+" Citing the reco##endation of the &anel$ the 9 H: <irccordeneral proposed a SP H> #illion increase in assessed contributions" The a#ount of assessed contributions has re#ained at SP H2H #illion since the appro%al of the 2 E-2 H budget in 2 ay 2 3"
- ©>" The range of reactions by 2 e # ber States to the proposal is reflected in the report of the &rogra # # e\s ? udget and ; d # inistration Co # # ittee to the 67ecuti\(\)e ? oard4
 -) 9 hile se%eral 2 e # ber States supported the proposed 1 I increase in assessed contributions others were not in a position to support that proposal So # e 2 e # ber States called on those countries that would e7perience decreases in contributions to # aintain pay # ents at e7isting le%els : ne 2 e # ber State supported the proposed increase and indicated its readiness to i # ple # ent the increase in 2 1E ; 2 e # ber State also agreed to the increase on a one-off basis and under the conditions that it did not set a precedent that country-le%el support was # a7i # i5ed and the efforts to encouraged - . 9 o #en$ /F ' C and - . /S< ' to ensure that health di #ensions are fully integrated into the new Global &rogra # #e to address the Gender /ne0uality of 'isk and &ro # ote 9 o #en,s 'esilience and Meadership" The Task Force # e # bers agreed that access to se7ual and reproducti%e health ser%ices is i # portant and that se7ual and gender based %iolence pose particular risks for wo # en and girls" They noted that wo # en and girls # ay also be e7posed to une0ually high health risks due to other factors$ such as their role as caregi%ers$ une0ual access to education$ and i # plicit gender biases that # ay influence diagnoses or treat # ent decisions"

@!" - . 9 o # en \(/F ' C \) and - . : ffice for < isaster 'isk 'eduction (- . /S < ' + ha\) bointly de \(/F \) el en tation (G/' \(/F \) argra # # e in Support of a Gender 'esponsi\(/F \) esponsi\(/F

E"suri"g resi#ie"ce a" ($ea#t$ crises are a pri rity "g# %a# p #itica# age" (as Tas1 F rce %servati "s a"(a(vice

• The Task Force #e#bers welco#ed the %ery first G2 health #inisters #eeting and obser%ed that it would gi%e a strong political #essage for the G2 to affir# their co##it#ent to a coordinated global response to health crises$ to financing preparedness for health e#ergencies at the national$ regional and global le%els$ as well as their support for the new /H' #onitoring and e%aluation fra#ework"

@H" /n 2 arch 2 13 \S health e7perts fro # G2 countries #et in Ger#any to prepare the Doint declaration of the G2 health #inisters when they #eet in ?erlin fro # 1H-2 2 ay 2 13" <uring the health e7perts #eeting \S the Health 9 orking Group discussed G2 positions on anti#icrobial resistance \S strengthening health care syste #s \S and global health crises #anage#ent"