

Decision on the Approval of the National Strategy for Sustainable Forestry Management

The Council of Ministers, in the meeting held on 12.05.2019, has decided to approve the National Strategy for Sustainable Forestry Management.

The Council of Ministers, in the meeting held on 12.05.2019, has decided to approve the National Strategy for Sustainable Forestry Management.

The Council of Ministers, in the meeting held on 12.05.2019, has decided to approve the National Strategy for Sustainable Forestry Management.

The Council of Ministers, in the meeting held on 12.05.2019, has decided to approve the National Strategy for Sustainable Forestry Management, in order to improve sustainable forest management, among other things, as follows:

The Council of Ministers, in the meeting held on 12.05.2019, has decided to approve the National Strategy for Sustainable Forestry Management.

- to conduct the National Forest Inventory (NFI) in a timely manner, to determine the forest resources and to update the data;
- to improve the system of forestry financing and development;

