

Review of the engagement between Guinea and the United Nations
Peacebuilding Commission, 2011-2014

"Unofficial translation"

I. Introduction

1# The statement of Mutual Commitments for Peacebuilding in Guinea, concluded on 26 September 2011 between the Government of Guinea and the United Nations Peacebuilding Commission, articulates the commitments made by the two parties within the three peacebuilding priorities, namely: a, promotion of national reconciliation and unity; b, reform of the defence and security sector; and c, youth and women empowerment.

2# From February 2011 to August 2014, the Commission's engagement was led by Ambassador Olivier Lucas, Permanent Representative of Luxembourg. The Government of Guinea and the Commission undertook two reviews, in 2012 and in 2014- both reviews assessed progress made in implementing the mutual commitments, and they made recommendations that guided the continued engagement between Guinea and the Commission.

3# The resolutions on the peacebuilding architecture review (S/RES/5705/22 and S/RES/52282/2014), adopted respectively by the General Assembly and the Security Council on 27 April 2014, encourage the Peacebuilding Commission to consider
