

Peacebuilding

4. The Assistant-Secretary-General

nexus with the women, peace and security agenda as a strong anchor. She said an inclusive triple nexus response to the pandemic needs to strengthen regional peacebuilding capacities and coordination of a joint response, to better the important role of the PBC in supporting the efforts of the PIF and other regional fora for peacebuilding, development and conflict-sensitive COVID-19 response and recovery in the Pacific.

They recognized that, in recent years, several countries in the region have successfully navigated political challenges and consolidated peacebuilding gains, making reference to the closure of RAMSI in 2017, the 2018 elections in Fiji, and the successful, peaceful and credible holding of the December 2019