

Peacebuilding Commission
Ambassadorial-Level Meeting on Papua New Guinea
12 May 2020
Ejck'Uwo o ct{

spread of COVID-19. She noted that violence against women is foremost about gender inequality and welcomed -commitment to implementing constitutional provisions on reserved seats for women in Parliament.

Papua New Guinea in all its efforts to build gender equality and end discrimination and violence against women. The DSG reported being deeply impressed by the youth she met in PNG, opportunities for engagement. She underscored that the importance of access to quality education, decent employment and opportunities for political and civic participation, and negotiations. They encouraged regular exchanges with the people of PNG and Autonomous Bougainville to ensure an understanding of the steps ahead.