

Terrorists groups can hide funds in multiple countries, taking advantage of the instability caused by conflict, corruption or weaknesses in AML/CFT regimes. Yet the groups in these

FSRBs, in particular, need greater political and financial support because without it terrorist attacks which might have been prevented, will sadly succeed. And the international