

repeal gender discriminatory legislation and implement inclusive and non-discriminatory policies as part of the response to terrorism and violent extremism.