

NOTE ON THE USE OF THE INDEX

1. The contents of the Repertoire have been indexed (i) under the agenda items and (ii) under the agenda items X-XII. In such instances cross references have been added where practicable. As a further aid to integrating the material within the Repertoire, material gathered together under the agenda items corresponds to the sequence of meetings on the agenda. Entries in the index to the Charter relate mainly to explicit references to the Articles in the text of the Articles of the Charter, the subject index should indicate a continuous series of meetings on the agenda within the limits indicated.
2. The index to the Charter follows the numerical sequence of the Chapters and Articles of the Charter. Entries in the index to the Charter relate mainly to explicit references to the Articles in the text of the Articles of the Charter, the subject index should indicate a continuous series of meetings on the agenda within the limits indicated.
3. Entries relating to questions of procedure have been grouped in the index under broad headings. Under these broad headings specific points of procedure are indicated.
4. Attention may be drawn to certain devices adopted to help the reader to locate the main body of material on any point. In the Charter Index the pages on which the main body of material for a heading will be found are printed in bold type. In the Subject Index, the resolutions adopted by the Council relevant to Chapters VIII. A table of applications for membership will be found in part I of chapter VII.² Other material on membership may be located by ascertaining from the table the meeting or meetings at which the application in question was considered, and consulting the index under "membership" for further references to meetings.
5. The Notes which introduce each chapter and each section in the Repertoire. In certain instances, where the Notes are deemed to be of special interest, the subject index has been limited to the Notes. Chapter VIII and X-XII contains a full set of cross references to the resolutions of the Council relevant to Chapters VIII and X-XII. Chapter VIII contains a full set of cross references to the resolutions of the Council relevant to Chapters VIII and X-XII. Chapter VIII contains a full set of cross references to the resolutions of the Council relevant to Chapters VIII and X-XII.
6. Readers consulting the Repertoire regarding a precedent at a particular meeting may need to ascertain the meeting number for each item on the inclusion of the item in the agenda has been indexed under the first meeting number for each
