GENERAL INTRODUCTION

The present volume constitutes the first supplement to the Repertoire of the Practice of the Security Council 1946-1951, which was issued in 1954. It covers the proceedings of the Security Council from the 570th meeting on 1 December 1955. Further supplements covering the proceedings of later meetings will be issued at suitable intervals.

In order to make it easier to trace the Security Council's practice in respect of any given topic over the entire period covered by the two volumes, the headings under which the practices and procedures of the Security Council were presented in the original volume have been maintained unchanged in this supplement. New headings have been inserted where certain topics which the Council has not discussed anew during this time are identified by double asterisks.

The methods employed and the principles observed in the preparation of this supplement have been the same as for the original volume of the Repertoire. They present the results of an analysis of the various procedures of the Council in a way calculated to make reference easy and convenient, particularly with regard to the proceedings of the Council.

As was observed in the original volume, the Repertoire

Security Council which constitute the only comprehensive and authoritative account of its deliberations. The categories employed to arrange the material are not intended to suggest the existence of procedures or established by the Council; the Council is at all times within the framework of the Charter "master of its own procedure". The object of the Repertoire will have been achieved if the reader, by using the descriptive titles of the headings under which the material is presented, is enabled to find relevant proceedings in order to draw conclusions for himself concerning the practice of the Council.

Details of the decisions of the Council have been included where appropriate in the accounts of its proceedings which make up this volume. The term "decision" has again been used to mean not only those "decisions" to which specific reference is made in the text of Articles of the Charter, but all significant steps decided upon by the Council whether in plenary session or otherwise, in the course of consideration of a question.

The reader should refer for full explanations of the explanatory matter in the original volume. An effort has been made to avoid unnecessary repetition of such
