ADOPTION OF THE AGENDA (RULE 9)

NOTE

Under rule 9, the first item on the provisional agenda for each meeting of the Council is the adoption of the agenda. If no objection has been raised, the Council usually adopts the provisional agenda, with or without amendment.

During the period under review, the Council included 32 new issues in its agenda, an unprecedented number incidents or aspects of more general questions. There were very few instances when objections were raised to the regarding such objections (see cases 4, 5 and 7). This reflects the growing practice in the Council of meeting informally in consultations prior to holding a formal ation of issues led to formal meetings of the Council.

As in previous volumes of the Repertoire, part III is devoted to the proceedings of the Council on those occasions of other discussion on the adoption of the agenda took place.

Section A deals with the procedure of the Council in voting on the adoption of the agenda (cases 2 and 3).

Section B deals with two instances when objections were raised to the adoption of the agenda relating to the under subheading 2 concerning the effect of the inclusion of an item on the agenda.

Section C deals with other questions of procedure that are related to the adoption of the agenda, such as the order of discussion of items on the agenda (cases 6 and 7) and the phrasing of items on the agenda (case 8).

discussion of the adoption of the agenda was limited to members of the Council.

A. PROCEDURE OF VOTING ON THE ADOPTION OF THE AGENDA

CASE 2

At the 1834th meeting, on 6 August 1975, the provisional agenda<sup>4</sup> read as follows:

1. Adoption of the agenda

12. Note by the Secretary-General transmitting the text of a telegram dated 29 July 1975 from the President of the Provisional Revolutionary Government of the Republic of South Viet-Nam (S/11756)

13. Note by the Secretary-General transmitting the text of a telegram dated 29 July 1975 from the Minister of the Government of the Democratic Republic of Viet-Nam (S/11761)

“4. Note by the Secretary-General transmitting a letter dated 30 July 1975 from the Permanent Observer of the Republic of Korea to the United Nations and the text of a telegram dated 29 July 1975 from the Minister of Foreign Affairs of the Republic of Korea

At the outset, the President (Japan), referring to prior consultations, put to the vote the inclusion of each item listed as items 2, 3 and 4 of the provisional agenda. After of items 2 and 3 and the rejection of the motion on item 4, the President stated that he would then put to

The representative of the USSR, speaking on a point of order, stated that in accordance with past practice there procedure outlined by the President had not existed during prior consultations; to the contrary, it had been agreed that each individual item should be voted on separately, the rationale being that the applications of the lic of Viet-Nam should be considered separately and independently, without being linked in any way to the consideration of the application of the Republic of Korea.

The President then stated that since a challenge had been submitted to the Chair's ruling, he would put the challenge to vote. The representative of the USSR replied nation as to why it was not advisable to vote on the adoption of the agenda as a whole at that stage.

The President, after requesting the representative of the USSR not to insist on his position, stated that he would like to put to the vote “the proposal the Chair made that the provisional agenda as a whole shall be put to the vote”. After the proposal was adopted unanias amended, is adopted”, but then added “the Chair was wrong. It is decided that the Chair's proposal is now put to the vote”.

At that point several representatives, including that of the USSR, stated that it was their understanding that the last voting had been conducted for the purpose of voting whether the Chair's ruling be put to the vote, specially since the representative of the USSR had not submitted a challenge to the Chair's ruling. The representatives of the United Kingdom and the United States, however, stated that their understanding was that the purpose of voting on whether or not the Chair's ruling should be upheld and, if so, as amended.

Following a lengthy procedural debate, during which a motion to suspend the meeting in order to listen to the transcript to clear up the misunderstanding on the voting had been rejected, the President stated:

had voted on item 4. As a result of that vote, item 4 has been rejected. I should make it clear that there should be no misunderstanding about my intention that the affirmative votes on items 2 and 3 would lead to their inclusion in the provisional agenda. The Council having thus voted, I now propose to put the provisional agenda, as amended—with only items 2 and 3—to the vote for adoption as a whole. If I hear no objection, I shall proceed.

B. CONSIDERATION OF:

At its 1195th meeting, on 3 January 1980, the Council adopted a provisional agenda<sup>11</sup> that read as follows:

- "1. Adoption of the agenda

informal consultations among members of the Council that had taken place previously. In the absence of objection, he declared the agenda adopted.<sup>16</sup>

CASE 7

At its 2114th meeting, on 23 February 1979, the Council had before it a provisional agenda<sup>16</sup> that read as

Norway, Portugal, the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Northern Ireland and the United States of America addressed to the President of the Security Council (S/13111))"

At the outset of the meeting, the representative of the USSR, referring to the incursion of Chinese troops into the consideration of the question of South-East Asia would divert the attention of the Council from "Chinese aggression".

The representative of China stated that "Vietnamese and peace in South-East Asia, and added that it should be considered with priority as a separate item. He would the current item since under that item the question of aggression against and occupation of Democratic Kampuchea would be considered anyhow.

The representative of Czechoslovakia stated that "the act of aggression by China" against Viet Nam should be clearly spelled out in the wording of the current agenda item with the sole aim of calling for the cessation of "Chinese aggression" and the withdrawal of Chinese troops from the territory of Viet Nam.

majority of the members of the Council and that if there were no objections he would take it that the majority was in favour of such a formulation. The agenda was then the Assembly of Heads of State and Government of concerning the invasion of Uganda by Israeli commandos carried out at 1 a.m. on that day. Calling the invasion

"an unprecedented act of aggression against Uganda by Israel", the telegram stated that the OAU Heads of State and Government were requesting the Council to meet urgently to consider "that wanton act of aggression"
against a State Member of the United Nations.

At its 1939th meeting, on 9 July 1976, the Council

follows:

"2. Complaint by the Prime Minister of Mauritius, current Chairman of the Organization of African Unity, of the 'act of aggression' by Israel against the Republic of Uganda"

and stated that it was the understanding of his delegation that the words "act of aggression" were taken directly from the telegram of the Prime Minister of Mauritius,
which had referred to this "unprecedented aggression

Part IV

THE AGENDA: MATTERS OF WHICH THE SECURITY COUNCIL IS SEIZED (RULES 10 AND 11)

NOTE

Rule 10 of the provisional rules of procedure was designed to enable the Council to continue, at its next meeting, the consideration of an item of unfinished business without subjecting that item to renewed debate.

During the period under review, additional evidence supporting such retention was provided when the President of the Council announced, upon conclusion of the debate, that the Council remained seized of a question.<sup>21</sup>

The tabulation appearing in section B.1 supplements the tabulation in the previous volume of the Repertoire

In the previous volumes of the Repertoire, it was noted that items on the agenda of the Council have remained on the Secretary-General's summary statement of matters of which the Council is seized when the tenor of the Council's discussion or its specific decisions have revealed a continuing concern with the matter.<sup>21</sup>
