

" "

Last year every day 37,000 people left their homes as a matter of survival, fleeing from conflict, persecution or disaster

70 million forcibly displaced people world-wide and over 25 million refugees currently uprooted

Today, some 55 per cent of people live in urban areas, versus 30 per cent in 1950. In 2050, that number is