Ally Yusuf Mugenzi has been the Editor of the BBC Great Lakes Section since September 2005. He is responsible for the editorial output of this section which broadcasts to the Great Lakes region which covers Rwanda, Burundi, Eastern Congo, some parts of Western Tanzania and Western Uganda.

Mugenzi started reporting for Focus on Africa and Swahili Services of the BBC World Service after the first attack of the Rwandan Patriotic Front in October 1990. In 1994 he was appointed to join the team in London as a producer. Shortly after his arrival in London, the genocide in Rwanda took place. Mugenzi played a key role in setting up the Gahuzamiryango (Family Unifier) Lifeline Project established after the genocide. In 1997 Mugenzi was transferred to Gahuzamiryango as a producer and then a Senior Producer.
