Mr. Chairman

We have followed with interest the report [REDACTED] the UN Secretary-General on the activities of DPI, in its two parts. As we express our [REDACTED] appreciation for the diversity of these activities that have developmental, cultural, political and social impacts, that are inspired by the needs of the peoples and the Millennium goals, we encourage DPI to continue its interest

[REDACTED] in the programs and activities related to socio-economic development, particularly in Africa, through awareness on the efforts aiming at raising growth rates, publicizing the accomplished achievements and defining the challenges that are still there and the priorities of [REDACTED]
