

relating to information” I plan

to be entirely on your support for achieving that end.

Dear colleagues,

As a subsidiary body of the General Assembly, established to deal with responsibilities that have been assigned to me, I have the honor to inform you that I have completed my work and I am pleased to submit to you my report.

My report, which is contained in the annex to this letter, covers the period from 1 January 1990 to 31 December 1990. It contains a summary of the work done by the Commission on Human Rights during that period, and a list of the recommendations made by the Commission to the General Assembly.

I have the honor to inform you that the Commission on Human Rights has considered all reports submitted by the Secretary-General, and has adopted its conclusions and recommendations. I have the honor to inform you that the Commission on Human Rights has also considered all reports submitted by the Secretary-General, and has adopted its conclusions and recommendations. I have the honor to inform you that the Commission on Human Rights has also considered all reports submitted by the Secretary-General, and has adopted its conclusions and recommendations.

I have the honor to inform you that the Commission on Human Rights has also considered all reports submitted by the Secretary-General, and has adopted its conclusions and recommendations.

I have the honor to inform you that the Commission on Human Rights has also considered all reports submitted by the Secretary-General, and has adopted its conclusions and recommendations.
