

0

Recommendation Two:

However, the adoption of an all-encompassing legally-binding document within UN COPUOS is unlikely. In this regard, under the Registration Convention, Member States should consider the establishment of a conference of the parties composed of representatives of the member states of the convention and accredited observers (10.1 (b) of the text)